(ii) Employers shall give their employees at least four weeks' previous notice of the date of the annual holiday and shall pay workers for the annual holiday before its commencement.

(iii) Should any of the special holidays specified in subclause (b) of this clause occur during the currency of any worker's annual holidays, then such annual holidays shall be extended by one day for every such special holiday so occurring, and the worker shall receive full pay for each additional day.

Any such arrangement shall be notified immediately to the secretary of the local union by the incoming licensee.

(b) Special Days—(i) Employees who work on Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, and Anniversary Day (or a day in lieu thereof) shall be paid one extra day's pay on "full pay" in addition to their weekly wages. Travelling-expenses

7. (a) When an employer personally or by his agent engages a worker to proceed to employment at a place other than the town or locality in which the worker is engaged, the employer shall pay the reasonable travelling-expenses incurred by such worker in journeying to the employment.

(b) If the employer should engage a worker in pursuance of subclause (a) of this clause and the employer for some reason not connected with the conduct or competency of the worker shall prevent the worker from commencing work, the employer shall pay the worker reasonable travelling-expenses incurred by the worker in journeying to and from the town or locality of engagement, together with one week's full pay as defined by clause 2 of this award.

(c) If the worker should be discharged on the grounds of his or her gross incompetency within one week of his or her commencing work, or on the grounds of his or her misconduct or default within 13 weeks of his or her commencing work, or if the worker shall of his or her own volition and through no fault of the employer leave the employment within 13 weeks of his or her commencing work, the worker shall refund to the employer any moneys the employer may have paid in pursuance of subclause (a) of this clause. To ensure the refund being made by the worker should it become due, the employer may withhold from the wages of the worker the amount of money paid by him in pursuance of subclause (a) of this clause until the worker shall have completed 13 weeks' service in his employment, whereupon he shall pay the same to the worker.

(d) "Travelling-expenses" shall mean such first-class rail fares, saloon boat fares, coach or motor fares, and cost of meals and accommodation as are reasonably necessary.

Casual Workers

Terms of Employment

If an employer dismisses a worker without notice he shall pay the worker one week's wages in lieu thereof, but this shall not apply to nor affect the employer's right to summarily dismiss a worker without notice for misconduct including dishonesty or drunkenness.

If a worker leaves his employer's service without notice or is dismissed for dishonesty or drunkenness he shall forfeit one week's wages.

(b) Wages shall be paid in cash weekly, not later than Thursday and in the employer's time.

Workers to be Members of Union

11. (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 174 (5) and 175 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954, it shall not be lawful for any employer bound by this award to employ or to continue to employ in any position or employment subject to this award any adult person who is not for the time being a member of an industrial union of workers bound by this award.

(b) For the purposes of subclause (a) of this clause a person of the age of 18 years or upwards, and every other person who for the time being is in receipt of not less than the minimum rate of wages prescribed by this award for workers of the age of 21 years and upwards, shall be deemed to be an adult.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(NOTE—Attention is drawn to section 174 (3) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 which gives to workers the right to join the union.)

Under-rate Workers

12. (a) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Disputes

13. The essence of this award being that the work of the employer shall always proceed as if no dispute had arisen, it is provided that if any dispute or difference shall arise between the parties bound by this award, or any of them, as to any matter whatsoever arising out of or connected therewith and not specifically dealt with in this award, every such dispute or difference as the same shall arise shall be referred to a committee to be composed of two representatives of the union and two representatives of the employer for their decision. The decision of the majority of the committee shall be binding and if no decision is arrived at, then the matter shall be referred to the National Disputes Committee at Wellington, consisting of three representatives of the New Zealand Federated Clerical and Office Staff Employees' Industrial Association of Workers and three representatives of the employers. The decision of the National Disputes Committee shall be binding, and if no decision is arrived at either party may appeal to the Court of Arbitration upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within 14 days after the failure of the National Disputes Committee to arrive at a decision, or the National Disputes Committee may itself refer the matter to the Court of Arbitration for decision.

Time-table

14. A time-table setting forth the working hours of each employee shall be available at all reasonable times in a convenient place in each office.

Right of Entry

15. The secretary or other authorised officer of the union of workers shall, with the consent of the employer (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), be entitled to enter at all reasonable times the premises where workers are employed and there interview workers, but so as not to interfere unreasonably with the employer's business.

- (i) The name of every worker employed.
- (ii) The kind of work in which he or she is employed.
- (iii) The daily hours of his or her employment.
- (iv) The wages paid each week, and the worker concerned shall sign such record.

(b) Employers bound by this award shall, upon request by the union, supply a list of their employees, such application not to be made more often than once each month.

Application of Award

17. This award shall apply to the original parties named herein, and shall extend to and bind as subsequent party hereto every industrial union, industrial association, or employer who, not being an original party hereto, is, when this award comes into force or at any time whilst this award is in force, connected with or engaged in the industry to which this award applies within the industrial districts to which this award relates.

Scope of Award

18. This award shall operate throughout the Northern, Taranaki, Wellington, Marlborough, Nelson, Westland, Canterbury, and Otago and Southland Industrial Districts.

Term of Award

19. This award, in so far as the provisions relating to the rates of wages to be paid are concerned, shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of April 1960, and so far as all other provisions of the award are concerned, it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof; and this award shall continue in force until the 9th day of December 1961.
