

Young Lawyers on the move

We wish to establish a regular column in this Journal to inform one another where we are working and what we are practising. Should you or your friends move on to bigger and better things, could you please telephone Miss Vicki Bolton on 9602 5777 and we will announce your move and whereabouts in the next journal.

Paul Altmann

Paul has been working at Riordans since completing his Articles at Meerkin & Apel. He has now commenced as Associate to Judge Hassett in the County Court.

Roisin Annesley

After completing her Articles at Mills Oakley, Roisin has joined Coltmans, practising Insurance Litigation including medical negligence and professional indemnity and general commercial Litigation.

Eva Bruce

Eva completed her articles in 1995 at the Victorian Government Solicitor's Office and has since become a legal adviser/assistant to the Attorney-General.

Jodie Burns

Jodie completed her Leo Cussen Course in 1994 and worked as a junior solicitor at the Victorian Government Solicitor's Office in the Property and Commercial Branch. Jodie has recently moved to the Office of Public Prosecutions (Vic).

Jane Carney

Jane Carney, formerly of Wisewoulds has joined NIKE as a corporate solicitor.

Simon Duncan

Simon has recently joined the claims development team at the RACV.

Alison Duxbury

After completing her Masters of Law at Cambridge and practising in London for five months, Alison has returned to take up a position as assistant lecturer in the Monash University Faculty of Law.

Natalie Freeburn

After completing her Articles at Harwood Andrews, Natalie commenced as the Marketing Manager at Macpherson & Kelly.

John Mollard

Having completed his Articles with Gadens Ridgeway in 1992, John attended Nanjing Normal University in China in 1993-1994 and is currently working in Hong Kong for the firm Lovell

White Durrant. John is expected to be admitted to practice in Hong Kong in 1996.

Malcolm Osborne-Smith

Malcolm has moved from Clayton Utz to Freehill Hollingdale & Page and practises in their Property, Planning and Environment Department.

Nick and Mary O'Hanlon Creed

Congratulations to Mary and Nick for tying the knot and creating another doubled barrelled surname!

Simon Quirk

Simon has also moved from Middletons Moore & Bevins to Freehill Hollingdale & Page and practises in their Mergers and Acquisitions Department.

Jonathon Quilty

After completing his articles at Henty Jepson & Kelly, Jon has moved down to Geelong and now practises at Gargan & Roache.

Judy Seif

Judy has left Ellinghaus and Lindner and begins the Bar Reader Course in March this year.

Robert Taylor

Robert completed his articles at the Victorian Government Solicitor's Office in 1995 and has recently joined the Bar.

Nick Thodos

Nick has left the Australian Bankers Association and now practices at Baker & McKenzie.

Amanda Whitfort

After completing her articles in 1995 at the Victorian Government Solicitor's Office and working as a junior solicitor in the Litigation Branch, Amanda is now working at the Office of Public Prosecutions (Vic).

Jocelyn Winterton

Jocelyn completed her articles at McCracken & McCracken in 1994 and worked as a junior solicitor at Lewis Hutchinson before becoming Judge Davey's Associate in February 1996.