Criminal Procedure Amendment (Court Fees Payable by Government Agencies) Regulation 2013

under the

Criminal Procedure Act 1986

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Criminal Procedure Act 1986.

GREG SMITH, MP
Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to prescribe certain NSW Government agencies and statutory bodies representing the Crown that will be required to pay court fees in relation to criminal proceedings prosecuted by them. Some bodies (including Roads and Maritime Services) are prescribed only in relation to some offences that they prosecute.

This Regulation is made under the Criminal Procedure Act 1986, including sections 4 (1) (the general regulation-making power) and 4A (2A) (as inserted by the Courts and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2012).
