

Rural Lands Protection Amendment (Stock Transport and Camels) Regulation 2012

under the

Rural Lands Protection Act 1998

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Rural Lands Protection Act 1998.

KATRINA HODGKINSON, MP
Minister for Primary Industries

Explanatory note

The objects of this Regulation are:

- (a) to provide that camels can be ridden on public roads in daylight (despite section 96 of the Rural Lands Protection Act 1998 (the Act), which otherwise prohibits the walking of stock on public roads), and
- (b) to provide that camels can be ridden or led on travelling stock reserves (in accordance with section 97 of the Act, which authorises the use of travelling stock reserves for recreational activities prescribed by the regulations), and
- (c) to declare certain animals to be stock for the purposes of Part 10A of the Act, which regulates the transport of stock by vehicle.

This Regulation is made under the Rural Lands Protection Act 1998, including sections 96, 97 and 243 (the general regulation-making power) and the definition of stock in Part 10A.
