1941.

Industrial Conciliation, Etc., Act.Amendments of the Principal Act.

2. Subsection two of section ten of the Principal Act is amended as follows:—

Amendment
of s. 10.

(a) The second paragraph of the said subsection (being the paragraph beginning with the words "All work" and ending with the words "time and a-half") is repealed and the following paragraph is inserted in lieu thereof, namely:—

"All work done by any employees on Good Friday, Labour Day (the first Monday in May or other day appointed under **The Holidays Acts, 1912 to 1935*," to be kept in place of that holiday), Christmas Day, the twenty-fifth day of April (Anzac Day), the first day of January, the twenty-sixth day of January, Easter Monday, the birthday of the Sovereign, and Boxing Day, or any day appointed under **The Holidays Acts, 1912 to 1935*," to be kept in place of any such holiday, shall be paid for at the rate of double time."

Payment for certain holidays.

(b) The fourth paragraph of the said subsection (being the paragraph immediately preceding the words "Nothing in these provisions shall have reference to Sunday work") is repealed.

(c) The last paragraph of the said subsection is amended by repealing the words "or one and a-half times the rate (as the case may be)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "the rate."

(d) The following paragraph is added to the said subsection, namely:—

"Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore in this subsection contained, all awards and industrial agreements (whether made before, on, or after the passing of †The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Acts Amendment Act of 1941 ") shall be deemed to contain provisions to the effect that all employees governed by such awards or industrial agreements shall be entitled to be paid a full day's wage for Labour Day (the first Monday in May or other day appointed under **The Holidays Acts, 1912 to 1935*," to be kept in place of that holiday) irrespective of the fact that no work may be performed on such day, and that if any work is performed it shall be paid for at the rate of double time as provided for herein."

† This Act.

Amendment
of s. 48.

3. In section forty-eight of the Principal Act the word "Minister" is repealed and the words "permanent head" are inserted in lieu of such repealed word; and in addition, a new paragraph is added to the said section forty-eight, as follows:—

"In this section "permanent head" means a "permanent head" as defined by *"The Public Service Acts, 1922 to 1924," and includes any officer for the time being discharging the duties of permanent head."

Amendment
of s. 49.

4. Section forty-nine of the Principal Act is amended as follows:—

(a) In provision one after the words "employer may" the words "with the approval of the Minister administering the Department or Crown instrumentality concerned" are inserted.

(b) In provision three the words "whom he" are repealed and the words "whom the Minister administering the Department or Crown instrumentality concerned" are inserted in lieu thereof.

Amendment
of s. 50 (2).

5. In the fourth paragraph of subsection two of section fifty of the Principal Act (being the paragraph commencing with the words "In the event" and ending with the words "the Court") the words and brackets "the period of employment not exceeding the said ninety days (or such extended period inclusive thereof as the Court or such magistrate may allow)" are repealed and the words and brackets "any period of employment within the ninety days (or such extended period as the Court or an industrial magistrate may allow, but not exceeding a period of six months inclusive of such ninety days) next preceding the date upon which the prosecution was instituted" are inserted in lieu thereof.

Amendment
of s. 77.

6. Section seventy-seven of the Principal Act is amended as follows:—

(a) In the first paragraph thereof all words from and including the words "for the purpose" to and including the word "vessel" are repealed.

(b) The second paragraph thereof is repealed and the following paragraph is inserted in lieu thereof:—

"Such officer may enter such places, premises, ships, or vessels at any time during which employees are
