No. 1317.

An Act to amend the Provident Societies Act 1890. [26th September, 1893.]

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Victoria in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

1. This Act may be cited as the Provident Societies Act 1893 and shall be construed as one with the Provident Societies Act 1890 herein-after called the Principal Act.

2. No society registered under the Principal Act or branch thereof or meeting of such society or branch shall be affected by any of the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third chapter seventy-nine or by any of the provisions of another Act of the said Parliament passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter nineteen if in such society or branch or at such meeting no business is transacted other than that which directly and immediately relates to the objects of the society or branch as declared in the registered rules thereof, but such society or branch and all officers of the same shall on request in writing by three justices give full information to such justices of the nature objects proceedings and practices of the society or branch, in default whereof the provisions of the Acts in this section referred to shall so far as applicable be in force in respect of such society or branch.

MELBOURNE:
By Authority: ROBT. S. BRAIN, Government Printer.